Bishop's Bulletin

The Monthly E-Newsletter of Bishop Darlington G. Johnson, D.Min.
Presiding Prelate and General Overseer of Bethel World Outreach Ministries International

Do You Possess the Character That True Leadership Demands?

Nothing is more critical to genuine leadership than character. The character of a leader is who he is on the inside—it is the sum total of his values and motives; it is the why behind the what. Many aspire to leadership, climb to great heights, but collapse due to flaws in their character. If you are an aspiring leader, pay close attention here. Turn off the television; hang up the phone—you cannot afford to miss this one. Missing it here is missing it altogether.

Bishop Johnson

Your character is what will cause people to trust you or not to trust you; to stand with you or stand against you; to go with you or run from you. It is the foundation upon which leadership is built. Make sure that your character is solid and strong and able to withstand all the pounding that you may face as a leader. Develop your character! Read more.

God Is at Work in Kenya: An Interview with Pastor Joshua Oyaro

BWOMI has planted more than 150 churches and fellowships in 22 nations. God is doing a tremendous work in and through BWOMI! This month we focus on God's work through BWOMI in Kenya, an East African nation. Below is an interview with Pastor Joshua Oyaro, overseer of Bethel Kenya.

Question: What is Bethel Kenya?

Answer: Bethel Kenya is a network of BWOMI churches located in various regions of Kenya. My wife, Catherine, and I started Bethel Kenya in April 2000 with about five members. Membership to date exceeds 900. Read more.

Jesus Delivered Me from a $35,000 Fine!

Deacon Benjamin Sube

In October 2008, I received a court notice that sent cold chills down my spine: This notice informed me that I had to appear in court the following month as a defendant in a case concerning an accident I had had 3 years previously, while driving the van of Charity Transportation. I would have to pay a fine of $35,000 if I was found guilty in this civil case! Read more.
